"It all started a long time ago in England," some people might say. They are not wrong. The rules for soccer today came from England. However, about 2,000 years ago, before there was soccer in England, there was already a game like soccer in China. People at that time called that game cuju. It means "kick a ball." Like soccer, people kick the ball with their feet. When they play the game, they can't use their hands. Cuju was fun, so it was a very popular game back then, just like soccer now. From students at school to people in the palace, they all enjoyed cuju very much.

B.

Do you spend a lot of money on clothes, but you still don't look good in them? Well, you don't need to spend a lot of money to look good. It's never about the price. It's all about putting clothes together. First, you need to know about colors. Some colors match with each other; some don't. Matching colors is not putting the same color together. It's putting different colors together, but they still look great. You can start by wearing black and white or other dark colors and white. A white T-shirt goes well with a pair of blue jeans or a black skirt. That can look good on anyone. Also, knowing your skin color is important, too. People with dark skin look great in bright colors. On the other hand, dark colors look good on people with lighter skin colors. Matching your clothes is an easy way to look good. Next week, I am going to talk more about the use of hats. See you then!

Cayden August 25 11:12 a.m.
Come visit my room, and you will see a lot of white T-shirts. Really, I don't have T-shirts in any other color, and I only have two pairs of jeans. One blue and one black. That's it. I don't need anything else.

This helped me a lot. Before, I always wore all black. Black T-shirt, black jeans, and black shoes—everything black. "I look cool," I thought, but I was wrong. This week I started to wear a white T-shirt or white shoes with black jeans. People saw my changes and said to me, "You look good."

Venice is a unique city. There are canals all over, so many locals have their own boats. Also, there are no cars, buses, motorcycles, or bikes because the streets are small and narrow. To travel around the city, you can only walk or take a boat. People often take a waterbus. Waterbuses run on the water, not on the street. They can take you around the canals in Venice and some other islands. Water taxis can do that too, but you will spend more money for sure. Besides waterbuses and water taxis, gondolas are also very popular. Gondolas are long small boats in beautiful colors, and some people visit Venice just for gondola rides.
