六、閱讀測驗。(每題3分，共15分)

Dear Leo,

How is everything in Australia? We're good in Taipei. Yesterday was Gina's birthday, so your son planned a surprise party for his sister.

It was sunny yesterday morning—not a cloud in the sky. First, Gina's friends and I went to the park next to our house. Then Eric took Gina there for a walk after breakfast. Gina's friends and I hid behind the trees, and we jumped out and said "Happy birthday!" to her. It was a big surprise for Gina, and she was very happy. Then we had lunch under a tree. But heavy rain fell after lunch. We ran to a gazebo and waited there for two hours. During that time, we ate a big chocolate cake. Kent, Gina's friend from elementary school, made the cake for her. What a birthday!

When can you come back? The kids miss their father, and I miss my husband.

Pete: 25 Michelle sent the postcard 26 me.

Ned: Right, she's taking a 27 in London. What's the weather 28 over there?

Pete: It's usually rainy. Luckily, it was 29 during her trip.

Ryan: Hello, this is Ryan's Healthy Food. How may I help you?

Jodie: Hi. I'd like to have a dinner party at your restaurant this Friday. However, I always drive there, so I only know the way there by car. Are there any other ways to get there?

Ryan: Of course. Besides coming by car, you can take Bus 89 or Bus Red 13 and get off at Fifth Street. The bus stop is in front of our front door. However, it will take more time to get here after five o'clock because of the traffic. Or you can take the metro and get off at Bond Street Station. Walk straight for around five minutes and turn left when you see an old hospital. Walk for two minutes, and you'll see our restaurant on your right. You can also take the train to Oliver Street Station and take the shuttle bus to the department store across from us. It's free.

Jodie: OK. Thank you so much for your help.
